

Acknowledgements

The music in this book was collected during two trips to Central America, in particular El Salvador and Costa Rica. Most of the music was obtained from those people who knew Agustín Barrios Mangoré, and space does not permit a thorough listing of all the names of those who helped me in my work. However, I feel a special debt of gratitude to Lois, Dwight, Rebecca, and David Stover; Dr. John Marcum of Merrill College, UCSC; Roger Emanuels; Raymundo Barrera and family; Dr. Rafael Antonio Carballo; José Cándido Morales; Rubén Urquilla; René and Cortés Andrino; Carlos Payet; Juan de Dios Trejos and family; Julia Martinez de Rodriquez; Dr. Edgar Cabezas and family, Ron Freshman, Sila Godoy, Ronoel Simoes and the Guitar Foundation of America.

Preface

This collection is the first comprehensive publication of the entire works of Agustín Barrios Mangoré, first guitarist/composer from the New World of truly universal importance. The significance of the works of Mangoré centers in their definition of a newer, more complex level of technique, influenced by but evolving independently from European models. The maturation of the guitaristic art as it is practiced in the countries of Iberoamérica has flowered in the genius of Barrios Mangoré.

This edition is not analytical nor comparative in its scope; it is designed for the performer, student and teacher. All accidentals are given as found in the original manuscripts. In very little of the music collected were there any fingerings given. Only after a thorough study of his works can one attempt to discern the most idiomatic solution consistent with Barrios' style and technique. For example, a salient feature of the way in which Mangoré used his left hand is its "stretched-out" aspect — in many pieces (such as Estudio para Ambas Manos, Estudio del Ligado, or Choro da Saudade to name a few) there are long, sustained reaches which can only be played in the way indicated to achieve the desired results.

In addition to written manuscripts, he also left a legacy of recordings, all made principally on the Argentine Odeon label, circa 1915-'30. When applicable, the recorded version of a piece has been taken as the preferred and final form, and many of the pieces are here presented for the first time in this corrected form corresponding exactly to what Mangoré played on his records.

Many pieces carried dates and dedications, and when justified all dedications have been translated from the original Spanish.

2nd Guitar

The musical score consists of seven staves of music for the 2nd guitar. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 3/4. The music is characterized by intricate rhythmic patterns and frequent use of triplets. Fingering is indicated by circled numbers 1 through 5. Some staves include natural signs (o) and accidentals (sharps and naturals). A 'C2' marking with a bracket is present above the sixth staff, indicating a capo position. The notation includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups.
